

A Great Experience at a Great Price!

Read the information below and send in your registration!

REGISTRATION: Church group and individual camper registration forms can be found on our website and must be completed to secure reservations. Call or write the Ranch for further assistance, if needed.

WHAT TO BRING FOR YOUTH WEEKS: Sleeping bag, pillow, sneakers (two pair), flashlight, water bottle or canteen, sun protection, KJV Bible, personal items, writing materials and money (optional) for snacks, crafts and horse rides.

WHAT TO NOT BRING FOR YOUTH WEEKS: Do NOT bring items such as knives (even jackknives), radios, CD players, electronic games, reading material not evidencing Christian principles, or anything our staff might deem improper, distracting, or offensive. Cell phones must be turned in to camp staff for safekeeping. Belongings should be marked.

ATTIRE: Attire for girls/ladies includes dresses, skirts, or culottes (knee length or longer). Clothing such as tight fitting tops, crop tops, slits above the knee, etc. are excluded, as is clothing with unchristian writing or pictures. Shorts are not permitted (either sex). Facial jewelry (except for earrings on girls) shall not be worn. Apparel of questionable appearance should not be worn.

HORSE PROGRAM: Short rides in corral areas (junior ages) or longer trail rides (teens and adults) are available. The cost during program weeks is: Juniors - $5, Teens and Adults - $8. For other occasions, contact the Ranch for information.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Guests for youth camps stay in cabins or teepees. (Housing arrangements for Chaperones/Sponsors who may be attending normally differ. For details, please inquire.) All meals and activities, except horse riding, are included in the program cost cited.

For information on Guest Ranch and Family Camp ministries, please check our website: www.GilaChristianRanch.org, or call or write the Ranch.
